

PRINCETON UNIVERSITY/FORD-EEOC ENDOWED SCHOLARSHIP PROGRAM

BRIEF DESCRIPTION:

The Ford Motor Company-EEOC Scholarship Program is part of our extensive need-based aid program and is used to support “self-identified” minorities and women with a preference given to Ford employees, their spouses and their children. In the event there are no dependents of Ford Motor Company employees receiving need-based aid, we then award to “self-identified” minorities and women. This scholarship does not affect the amount a student receives, but is used to fund individual grant amounts established through our review of their family resources.

SCHOLARSHIP AMOUNT:

Princeton University will meet the full need of each qualified student. There is no specific dollar amount for this scholarship.

APPLICATION DEADLINE:

Currently enrolled Princeton students must complete their aid application by May 1st. Prospective students must apply by November 15th for Early Action and by February 1st for Regular Decision.
